

'Peace be with you'

'Peace be with you' is an exhortation shared on several occasions throughout the Gospels, usually when there is great news about to be shared.

This is not the quiet peace of the status quo, of life as normal; this is the disruptive yet reassuring peace that comes because Jesus is raised from the dead.

It is the beginning of something new.

How has your week been?

With the news of our continued self-isolation this week, it may be a good time to reflect on what has been remembering the 5 R's (or is this 6?)

Relish the moments that went well and all of the gifts I have this week.

Request the Spirit to lead me through my review of the has been.

Review the week.

Repent of any mistakes or failures.

Resolve, in concrete ways, to live tomorrow well.

Lord Jesus Christ,
you taught us to love our neighbour,
and to care for those in need
as if we were caring for you.
In this time of anxiety, give us strength to comfort the fearful, to tend the sick,
and to assure the isolated
of our love, and your love,
for your name's sake.
Amen.

I hope that many of you will be able to join us later this morning on ZOOM

Much love to you all and stay safe
