Owls Zoom at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday 21st February

Hello!

This is a one-off Zoom to try to virtually bring Owls back together again before Owls club can hopefully resume 'live' in the Barn Centre on Sunday 21st March for some Easter garden pot planting (subject to Covid opening regulations and restrictions of only 15 per bubble). Zoom link is below.

We are thinking about 'Resisting Temptations' as it's the first Sunday in Lent, which started on Ash Wednesday 17th February.

CHALLENGE: - Can you eat a really sugary donut without licking your lips at any point before/during/after? Prove it on Zoom!!!

We will start the Zoom at 10am with some games, and then I'll read a Bible story / watch an animation. We'll talk about what stuff we get tempted to do/say that is not good news for us or others, say a pray and then move to the craft activity:

Resist Art!

For this, do you have?

EASTER PACKS 2021 FOR OWLS

Hello, everyone! I cannot believe that it is coming up to a year now that we made up our first set of packs for the children. 50 were made and distributed to the children who were signed up to the Easter holiday club, One Wonderful World, which had to be cancelled like most events in 2020! Since the making and delivery of those packs, there have been Owls Sunday packs, Hallelujah packs, Advent packs, Christmas packs, Toddler packs and now back to Easter packs! This year we are making 30 packs up for the Little Owls to be made up on 24th/25th March and delivered the following week. Im wondering if this will be the last set of packs?!

Would you like to be involved in equipping the packs? I have so far got Easter eggs and a Christian booklet, cross shaped keyrings and have a promised donation of animal pencils and erasers. Baker Ross has some great bits in their clearance sale: click here for their website

Other good sources are Poundland, the Works online click here, also Amazon or EBay online. Any new crafty bits would be appreciated and this is your chance to get involved if you want!

I try to avoid too much plastic, preferring paper, materials or wood as crafts.

Please drop off any bits to the Vicarage at 36a Allington Road, or give to Rebecca Hume, Issie Baty, Patsy Bailey or email me and I will collect from you. Alibarcombe@gmail.com
